The Tucson Society of the AIA invites you to join us for a rich program of talks this fall. We look forward to seeing you at our lectures and at the receptions following each talk. Please note the different locations of the lectures this fall (see enclosed map). The closest parking garage for these locations is the one on Second and Highland Streets. If you need additional information about our program or AIA membership, please contact Mary Voyatzis at the above phone number or via email at MEV@u.arizona.edu. The Phoenix Chapter of the AIA (the Central Arizona Society) is also offering a full and interesting program of lectures again this fall.
